Issue 5

HFRS Weekly Wrap

Dear Parents,

This weekend, churches across our nation will celebrate Catechetical Sunday. We are extremely grateful for our faculty and staff who serve as catechists and role models of our faith. Serving in the ministry of Catholic education, we are provided the wonderful opportunity to reflect on the role that each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Catechetical Sunday is an opportunity for all to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith. Thanks for allowing us the opportunity to bring your children closer to Jesus Christ.

This Week's Happenings:

- Constitution Day is annually held on September 17. Our teachers plan amazing activities at every grade level. The children wrote ways they can be good citizens, created mini-constitutions, and drew American flags. The students will take a virtual field trip to Independence Hall and others participate in an electoral college simulation. It is awesome to see our students celebrate our country and show appreciation for our freedom.
- The Funding Our Future raffle tickets are now due back to the school. Families must sell a minimum of $500 in tickets. Please purchase any remaining tickets so that you can be entered into the drawing on Saturday. Families will be assessed a fee for any unsold tickets returned to the school. We are looking forward to awarding the Grand Prize of $15,000 during the Fall Festival.
- The Strategic Planning Team is seeking your feedback as we prepare to create our five-year plan. All are invited to attend the Input Sessions on Tuesday and Thursday of next week. Due to attendance, the sessions have been combined each day and will begin at 6:45pm. We are also asking you to provide your feedback by completing the HFRS Parent Survey. The survey will remain open until Monday, September 26.

As we head into the weekend, let us thank God for the many blessings of this past week. Let us continue to pray for the children of our school, that they be drawn to Christ, and know that they are children of God, and are loved.

Mission Moments

Religious and Spiritual Formation

On Thursday, September 8 (Mary's Birthday), the North Campus attended a Mass Orientation where the students were introduced to Mass Etiquette in preparation for the Weekly Masses. The students learned how to enter the church showing reverence, how to fully partake in the liturgy, and how to leave the pews and pass the tabernacle with respect for Jesus.

Academic Excellence

Every single 7th and 8th grade student completed the summer reading homework, which involved reading two books and completing a project for one and questions for the other. The students gave poster presentations based on the biographies they selected to read over the summer. As listeners, the students learned a lot about several well-known individuals in our world. There were two BIG takeaways from these presentations:

- Perseverance, coupled with a growth mindset, allowed many of these great individuals to accomplish major goals. Several of them rose out of poverty to achieve their dreams, inspiring many others along the way.
- Selfless acts, for the sake of others, allowed some seemingly ordinary people to become revered as role models.

Service to Others

The Spirit Leaders program at Holy Family Regional School gives recognition to every student in Young 5 through Grade 3 as they demonstrate courtesy, respect, and a willingness to serve others. Spirit Leaders recite the school prayer, mission statement, and Pledge of Allegiance on the morning announcements. In addition, Spirit Leaders hold doors for students and greet classmates. Each Spirit Leader wears a special badge during his or her week of recognition. Teachers and staff members expect Spirit Leaders to demonstrate the virtues we are learning and to fulfill jobs needed so that our classrooms, playground, and hallways are spaces that reflect the compassion and love of Jesus.

This Week in our Faith

News from Campus Ministry

Catechetical Sunday September 18th

This Sunday, across our nation, those who have dedicated their life to Catholic education will be recognized and blessed in their own parish.

We have approximately 120 Faculty and Staff at Holy Family Regional School who echo the Word of God through word and deed, and we ask a special blessing over all. All our teachers, regardless of their subject area, must seek religious and spiritual enrichment throughout the year so they are ready to help form our children in the faith.

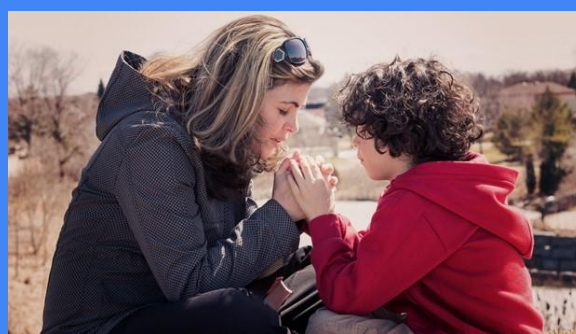

The Code of Canon Law notes that, to a degree, every Christian has a role to play in teaching the faith and that "solicitude for catechesis belongs to all members of the Church according to each one's role."

Parents and godparents, for example, have a particular role to play in the education of children in the faith after baptism, and pastors, along with their pastoral staff, have a particular responsibility to see to the "catechetical formation" of the people in their parishes.

We do the same at our school. The teachers of religion, at HFRS, have had formal training that has earned them a Catechetical Certification. This training takes at least a year to complete, and to maintain the certificate, all teachers of religion must seek 12 additional enrichment hours each year.

Upcoming Events and Mass Leadership

An Orientation

Your child had their first All School Mass today at St. Andrew! Here are a few starter points we want everyone to ponder about this holy celebration

- Understand why you are going...to worship and thank God, to receive Him in the Eucharist. You will become one with Him, and all others, forming the Body of Christ (a Holy Communion)
- Participate...sing, respond, do all the gestures. Be an active member of the Body of Christ.
- Know that you are being invited to a Banquet of the Lord ...our King (in His palace)
 - Take care to look sharp
 - Inside this house there are seats for you, pictures/statues of our ancestors and members of our holy family, there is a Table dressed with a cloth and finest dishes and cups
- Genuflect to our King, to Jesus, in the Tabernacle
- Bow to the Holy Altar Table where the Last Supper will be reenacted (and YOU are invited!)
- Take time to kneel before God and pray
- Listen and ponder what is being said to us, from God, in all the readings
- Notice the Gifts that are brought to this banquet
 - Bread and wine from human hands ... brought to our Lord for the feast
- The priest will prepare these Gifts
 - Who is the priest? JESUS! He is in persona Christi...in the person of Christ
 - He will invoke the Holy Spirit to change the bread and wine into His Body and Blood for us
- We walk to the table of the Lord in a humble and prayerful way preparing ourselves to become holy and sacred, to become one with Jesus
- After the feast is complete, and after the host, our Priest, has processed out, you may leave
- Hopefully you feel changed and inspired to go out and share what you have experienced during this holy time

MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS FOR THE 108th WORLD DAY OF MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES 2022

(25 September 2022)

Building the Future with Migrants and Refugees

“Here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city that is to come.” (Heb 13:14)

Dear brothers and sisters!

The ultimate meaning of our “journey” in this world is the search for our true homeland, the Kingdom of God inaugurated by Jesus Christ, which will find its full realization when he comes in glory. His Kingdom has not yet been brought to fulfilment, though it is already present in those who have accepted the salvation he offers us. “God’s Kingdom is in us. Even though it is still eschatological, in the future of the world and of humanity, at the same time it is found in us.” [\[1\]](#)

The city yet to come is a “city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God” (Heb 11:10). His plan calls for an intense work of construction, in which all of us must be personally involved. It involves a meticulous effort aimed at personal conversion and the transformation of reality, so that it can correspond ever more fully to the divine plan. The tragedies of history remind us how far we are from arriving at our goal, the new Jerusalem, “the dwelling place of God with men” (Rev 21:3). Yet this does not mean that we should lose heart. In the light of what we have learned in the tribulations of recent times, we are called to renew our commitment to building a future that conforms ever more fully to God’s plan of a world in which everyone can live in peace and dignity.

“We wait for new heavens and a new earth, where righteousness is at home” (2 Pet 3:13). Righteousness is one of the building blocks of God’s Kingdom. In our daily efforts to do the Lord’s will, justice needs to be built up with patience, sacrifice, and determination, so that all those who hunger and thirst for it may be satisfied (cf. Mt 5:6). The righteousness of the Kingdom must be understood as the fulfilment of God's harmonious plan, whereby in Christ, who died and rose from the dead, all creation returns to its original goodness, and humanity becomes once more "very good" (cf. Gen 1:1-31). But for this wondrous harmony to reign, we must accept Christ's salvation, his Gospel of love, so that the many forms of inequality and discrimination in the present world may be eliminated.

No one must be excluded. God's plan is essentially inclusive and gives priority to those living on the existential peripheries. Among them are many migrants and refugees, displaced persons, and victims of trafficking. The Kingdom of God is to be built with them, for without them it would not be the Kingdom that God wants. The inclusion of those most vulnerable is the necessary condition for full citizenship in God's Kingdom. Indeed, the Lord says, "Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me a drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, sick and you took care of me, in prison and you visited me" (Mt 25:34-36).

Building the future with migrants and refugees also means recognizing and valuing how much each of them can contribute to the process of construction. I like to see this approach to migration reflected in a prophetic vision of Isaiah, which considers foreigners not invaders or destroyers, but willing labourers who rebuild the walls of the new Jerusalem, that Jerusalem whose gates are open to all peoples (cf. Is 60:10-11).

In Isaiah's prophecy, the arrival of foreigners is presented as a source of enrichment: "The abundance of the sea shall be brought to you, and the wealth of the nations shall come to you" (Is 60:5). Indeed, history teaches us that the contribution of migrants and refugees has been fundamental to the social and economic growth of our societies. This continues to be true in our own day. Their work, their youth, their enthusiasm and their willingness to sacrifice enrich the communities that receive them. Yet this contribution could be all the greater were it optimized and supported by carefully developed programs and initiatives. Enormous potential exists, ready to be harnessed, if only it is given a chance.

In Isaiah's prophecy, the inhabitants of the new Jerusalem always keep the gates of the city wide open, so that foreigners may come in, bringing their gifts: "Your gates shall always be open; day and night they shall not be shut, so that nations shall bring you their wealth" (Is 60:11). The presence of migrants and refugees represents a great challenge, but at the same time an immense opportunity for the cultural and spiritual growth of everyone. Thanks to them, we have the chance to know better our world and its beautiful diversity. We can grow in our common humanity and build together an ever greater sense of togetherness. Openness to one another creates spaces of fruitful exchange between different visions and traditions, and opens minds to new horizons. It also leads to a discovery of the richness present in other religions and forms of spirituality unfamiliar to us, and this helps us to deepen our own convictions.

In the new Jerusalem of all peoples, the temple of the Lord is made more beautiful by the offerings that come from foreign lands: “All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered to you, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister to you, they shall be acceptable on my altar, and I will glorify my glorious house” (Is 60:7). As we have seen, the arrival of Catholic migrants and refugees can energize the ecclesial life of the communities that welcome them. Often they bring an enthusiasm that can revitalize our communities and enliven our celebrations. Sharing different expressions of faith and devotions offers us a privileged opportunity for experiencing more fully the catholicity of the People of God.

Dear brothers and sisters, and, in a special way, young people! If we want to cooperate with our heavenly Father in building the future, let us do so together with our brothers and sisters who are migrants and refugees. Let us build the future today! For the future begins today and it begins with each of us. We cannot leave to future generations the burden of responsibility for decisions that need to be made now, so that God’s plan for the world may be realized and his Kingdom of justice, fraternity, and peace may come.

Prayer

Lord, make us bearers of hope,
so that where there is darkness,
your light may shine,
and where there is discouragement,
confidence in the future may be reborn.

Lord, make us instruments of your justice,
so that where there is exclusion, fraternity may flourish,
and where there is greed, a spirit of sharing may grow.

Lord, make us builders of your Kingdom, together with migrants and refugees and with all who dwell on the peripheries.

Lord, let us learn how beautiful it is to live together as brothers and sisters. Amen.
